Some points to note: Webpages | Blog | Wiki

Webpage | Website
• Where possible it is best to cite the webpage rather than an entire website – this provides a more accurate indication of your source.

Date of a webpage
• To find the date of a webpage look for ‘last updated’ date which is usually in the footer.

Author
• The author could be an organisation, rather than individual
• If author is unknown use the title of the text and date.

Blog / Wiki
• If author is unknown, cite by title.
