Reading to relate is about students interacting with the text by personally connecting with it (Carillo 2017, p. 34).

Or

Carillo (2017, p. 37) states that reading to relate helps students read critically not only in the classroom but beyond it as well.

Some points to note:

- Author unknown
  - The title becomes the first entry

- Authors
  - The names of all authors should be provided in the reference list - do not use et al.

- Journal titles
  - Journal titles are given maximum capitalisation

- Journal articles
  - Only first letter of the title is capitalised in journal articles.
