Smartcopying – Education Licence

Applying Creative Commons Licence:

Adding a CCL to your website:

There are two ways to add the licence, depending on how your website is edited:

1. Simply copying and pasting the logo
   - a. The normal icon [CC BY] or the compact icon [CC BY]
   - b. It is also best practice to link the icon to the licence deed: http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/4.0/

2. Inserting the HTML code
   - a. The HTML can be found on the Creative Commons Licence Chooser website: https://creativecommons.org/choose/
   - b. You must select ‘Yes’ to the two questions, and then the HTML will be produced. Note you can select the HTML for either the compact or normal icon. See the below Screenshots and arrows.

Copyright Statement and Third Party Content:

When you licence your website under Creative Commons, you will also need to amend your copyright statement to reflect this.

Smartcopying is licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International Licence

Smartcopying requests attribution as: National Copyright Unit Copyright Advisory Groups (Schools and TAFEs)

Adding a CCL to your publications:

Here is an example of a statement that could be used on a publication:

© 2015 by [insert name of copyright owner].

Except as otherwise noted, this [insert content title] is licensed under the Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International Licence. To view a copy of this licence, visit http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/4.0/.

Education Licence A: Statutory Broadcast Licence

Statutory Broadcast Licence for Copying of Television and Radio Programs

Labelling/Attribution:

We recommend that you always label/attribute any material you copy under the Statutory Broadcast Licence with the name of the program, the channel it was copied from and the date the copy was made.

eg: Copied under the Statutory Licence in s 113P of the Copyright Act 1968 ‘Media Watch’, ABC, 17 August 2009

Notice Requirements:

Each time a Copy Program is uploaded to a password protected share drive, intranet, content or learning management system or cloud storage for student and staff access, we recommend the following notice be attached to the copy:

[WARNING]

This material has been copied (and communicated to you) in accordance with the statutory licence in section 113P of the Copyright Act. Any further reproduction or communication of this material by you may be the subject of copyright protection under the Act. Do not remove this notice

A practical way of including this notice is to insert a link to the notice from the labelling information. This would mean that the notice would have to be uploaded onto one spot on the repository and be linked to when required.

eg: Copied under the statutory licence in s 113P of the Copyright Act Media Watch’, ABC, 17 August 2009

Where the notice is displayed on screen, it is important to state that the notice will only apply to some of the material on the repository. This is because not all material saved to the repository will be material copied under the Statutory Broadcast Licence. For example:

[WARNING]

Some of this material may have been copied (and communicated to you) in accordance with the statutory licence in section 113P of the Copyright Act. Any further reproduction or communication of this material by you may be the subject of copyright protection under the Act. Do not remove this notice.

Sources: Smartcopying: the Official guide to Copyright issues for Australian schools and TAFE, viewed 31 May 2018 from http://www.smartcopying.edu.au/home